

Declaration of consent

Purpose

Thank you for agreeing to take part in this research project. This research is designed to find out how people use digital tools for creation, and specifically find out more about the workflow around digital photography and photo editing.

Methods

You will be engaged in an expert interview about (interface) design for flow.

The interview will be recorded for the purposes of the study. The recording will be erased after the study is complete. You will have access to the recording and all data collected on request.

You have the option to consent to the inclusion of some personally identifiable information (your name and area of expertise), as well as quotes from this interview. Inclusion of your name, line of work, and quotes will help grant credibility to the information presented.

If you consent to the inclusion, quotes from the interview might be published in the final thesis, together with your name and area of expertise. You are free to specify parts of the interview that should be treated as confidential and thus not be published, in addition to the complete withdrawal procedure specified below.

If you do not consent to the inclusion, all information collected will be treated as strictly confidential and your personal details will not be included on any of the information collected, so that you remain anonymous.

Withdrawal

You have 2 weeks from the date of signature below to email if you change your mind on being included in this research. If you decide to withdraw from the study at any point, your wish will be respected and you will be free to do so. All information gathered up to this point will be destroyed.

Contact

If you have any questions, or need to contact me for any reason you can email me at zeno.kapitein@hyperisland.co.uk.

If you agree to participate in the study, please enter your details and signature below.

Thank you for participating!
